TRIBUTE TO DR. MYRNA GOLDENBERG

HON. CONSTANCE MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 27, 1996

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak today in honor of an extraordinary woman, Dr. Myrna Goldenberg, I would like to pay tribute to her most recent accomplishment for which she will be presented the William H. Meardy Faculty Member Award on October 12. This highly competitive award annually recognizes one community college faculty member who personifies the concept of faculty excellence as the foundation of the success of the community college movement.

When Dr. Goldenberg joined Montgomery College in 1971 she began her crusade to raise awareness of the importance of diversity in education. Under her leadership, Montgomery College received a $280,000 Ford Foundation Grant to lead community colleges in multicultural curriculum transformation. The year-long project focused on changing the curriculum to include feminist and minority scholarship in representative community colleges, including historically black and American Indian colleges. Goldenberg is also the creator and former host of a popular campus cable television show on women's issues titled "Pandora's Box."

Dr. Goldenberg is credited with developing the college's Women's Studies Program, which the American Association of Women in Community Colleges named No. 1 in the Nation. In recognition of Goldenberg's success with the Women's Studies Program, her colleagues created a scholarship award in her honor last year.

Not only is she a college leader, she is a community activist, and a consultant to Montgomery County Public Schools. She taught two summer institutes for over 50 secondary school teachers to help develop a broad and holistic perspective of American society. Also, she is a mentor to high school students in the National Endowment for the Humanities Younger Scholars Program that studies immigrant women.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to once again have the opportunity to bring the many accomplishments of this distinguished educational leader, Dr. Myrna Goldenberg, to the attention of my colleagues. I applaud the choice of the William H. Meardy faculty members for selectig her this year's honoree.

RECOGNIZING TAIWAN'S NATIONAL DAY

HON. STEVE CHABOT

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 27, 1996

Mr. CHABOT. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to take a moment before the Congress adjourns for the year to congratulate our friends and allies in the Republic of China as they prepare to celebrate their National Day on October 10.

As my colleagues know, the Taiwanese people recently made history as they successfully and peacefully held the first Democratic elections in over 4,000 years of Chinese history. President Lee Teng Hui and the people of the Republic of China are to be commended for that landmark achievement.

I join with my colleagues in the Congress and my many Taiwanese-American friends in Cincinnati and around the country in congratulating the people of the Republic of China on this, the 85th anniversary of their National Day.

TRIBUTE TO BISHOP CHARLES HENRY MCCOY

HON. JACK QUINN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 27, 1996

Mr. QUINN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of Bishop Charles Henry McCoy.

Throughout his life, Bishop McCoy tirelessly dedicated himself to the enhancement of our western New York community.

On September 22, 1996, the Buffalo community lost one of its true leaders. A man whose dedicated and charitable community service, commitment to God and family, and strong principles serve as an inspiration to us all.

A gospel preacher for over 60 years, Bishop McCoy dedicated himself to his ministry and to service to his community. On May 28, 1926, Charles McCoy was licensed to the ministry. From that time until the day he died, Bishop McCoy served the Church of God in Christ. Whether it was as pastor, district superintendent, executive secretary, elder, or jurisdictional bishop, Charles McCoy's church building skills were demonstrated clearly.

Under that leadership, the second jurisdiction has grown to include 53 churches. Further, through the McCoy Center, a brilliant facility built under the direction of Bishop McCoy, the Church of God in Christ has been able to make a significant contribution to the development of our community with emerging housing projects.

Mr. Speaker, today I would like to join with the city of Buffalo, western New York second jurisdiction of the Church of God in Christ, and indeed, our entire western New York community, to honor Bishop Charles Henry McCoy, who is survived by his stepson, Douglas; seven grandchildren, Tyrone, Delores, Douglas, Stacy, Cheryl, Eric, and Trent; and nine great-grandchildren for his dedicated service to our western New York community. To that end, I would like to convey to the Bishop's family my deepest sympathies, and ask my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join with me in a moment of silence.

IN RECOGNITION OF MIKE GUIGNO FOR 56 YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 27, 1996

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, on September 30 of this year, Mr. Mike Guigno, special projects officer for the directorate of public works at Fort Monmouth, NJ, will be retiring after 56 years of distinguished and exemplary public service. I am proud to have the opportunity to commend Mr. Guigno for this service and congratulate him on his retirement.

As all of those who know Mike Guigno are aware, his record is truly an outstanding one. Having joined the National Guard in 1939 and served his country in World War II as part of Headquarters Company, 114th Intelligence and Reconnaissance, he established himself as a public servant in the earliest days of this professional life—a fact which the Fort Monmouth community would discover a few years after the war when he was transferred to the post engineers in October 1950.

Since that time, Mr. Guigno's career has been nothing short of a model of excellence. He has worked tirelessly to improve Fort Monmouth and his work, which included a 1970 visit with President Nixon to discuss problems affecting the fort's community, will never be forgotten. The numerous letters, certificates and awards he has received in recognition of this service—most notably selection as the 1989 Fort Monmouth Civilian Employee of the Year and 1995 U.S. Army Material Command Public Works Support Executive of the Year—ensure the Fort Monmouth community will forever be in his debt. Indeed as a co-chair of the Save Our Fort Committee, a grassroots organization committed to improving Fort Monmouth, it is with great pleasure that I express both the public's gratitude, and my own, for all he has done.

Mr. Guigno's family, wife Marguerite, son and daughter-in-law Victor and Cyndee, and sister Theresa are surely proud of him as well. Undoubtedly the road he has paved to get to his final position of special projects office of the directorate of public works—including that outside of professional life, which led to frequent participation in local church parish activities—has undoubtedly enriched their lives.

Mr. Speaker, as this long and honorable list of accomplishments indicates, Mike Guigno's life has been full and his record of public service stellar. In short, he has set an example of citizenry that all should follow.

In closing, I once again, congratulate Mike Guigno and thank him for a lifetime dedicated to improving the life of his fellow citizen.
